Even friendships are matured in silence. Friends are made by words, love is preserved in silence. The best friends are those who know how to keep the same silences.

Registration forms are located in back of the church or please come by the office to register.

MEDITATION OF THE DAY: Trusting in the God of the Living

It is three months since I uttered the cry of anguish that you heard, O my God, and did not grant the deepest prayer from my battered heart, or rather, you answered it differently and better. All that I so ardently desired for my beloved sister, all the joys, health, and love that I hoped for her and all the life that I prayed for, even her final happiness, all these you have given to her in taking her to yourself. I cannot believe that my constant ardent prayers, and those of others for her, and all the sacrifices offered and so much suffering accepted could all be useless. I do not believe that all her sufferings and grief, ended by a holy death, could be without fruit. If she was denied earthly happiness, if she knew bitter and sad separations, and if in the end she was taken from us, it is because a better life awaited her on the other side. The God of love prepared for her a joy beyond her suffering, and God wanted her to enjoy all good and beauty and to give her his light; God purified her and so she could approach the holiness of God. My God, you wished, no doubt, to purify us also and to transform us through suffering. I can only say to you with all my being, which is yours, the words: "My God, I suffer, I adore, and I pray."

I adore because I believe, because I have seen and tasted the depth of suffering, because my soul is forever rooted in you, my God. I adore because you are goodness, beauty, light, and life; because you are a Father full of love and compassion; because you are my friend and my only consoler O Jesus Christ! But I suffer because she whom you took was my true friend and the gentle confidant of my faith and thoughts; because I spent some of the best hours of my life with her; because I loved her like a sister and like a beloved child at the same time; because we prayed, suffered, and loved together; and because her affection belonged to my life, my happiness, my heart. Now, humanly speaking, my life is shattered, part of my heart has gone with my dear sister to live in you. May we one day be reunited where there are no tears, no grief, and no separation.

Servant of God Elisabeth Leseur

Elisabeth of Leseur (+1914) was a French laywoman whose atheist husband, upon reading her spiritual journal after her death, experienced a profound conversion and later became a Dominican priest.

Please remember those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith: †Albert Baca, †Maria Tamez, †Lolo Cueva, †Paul Marrufo †Guadalupe Villarreal, †John Grune

Remember in your prayers those who are sick in our parish: Lillian Dornak, Patsy Holland, Lawrence & JoAnn Charba, Evelyn Bluntzer, Erwin Dornak, Ester Medina

Please call the Parish Office on the progress of the above to keep our list current.

November

Saturday Rosary:

A "Scriptural" Rosary is said in Latin every 1st & 3rd Saturday morning for Pro Life intentions at 8:28 am before the 9 am Mass.

Also,

Sunday @ 8:28 am a "Scriptural" Rosary will be prayed in English before the 9:00 am Mass.

Yes, that's right, today, November 6th is the date we turn our clocks back one hour. It'll take a few days, maybe even a few weeks to get use to the daylight change. Just remember to change all of your clocks or you might be late, for school, work or church.
