"A lack of faith is often tragically accompanied by the loss of meaning in life, the neglect of mercy, appalling violations of human dignity, the crisis of the family and so many other wounds that afflict our society."

MEDITATION OF THE DAY

How We Glorify the Son

Mosaics, as we know, are made of many small tiles or stones. The Church too can be compared to a mosaic, and in it each one of us can be considered a tile. But the tiles of this mosaic are not inanimate. In the mosaic that is the Church, each one of us is a living tile. We understand where we fit in and are aware of our specific role in relation to everyone else and to the whole. While we know that each of us has value only as part of the whole, we are also aware that if one of us is missing, the mosaic is incomplete.

Not all the tiles of this mosaic are the same, of course. One of us, so to speak, might be a green tile, another a blue one, still another a golden or white one, and so on. That is, we all have a specific task to be carried out right where we are, an individual mission to remain faithful to. Thus, as tiles in the Church's mosaic, we must remain in the place assigned to us. Carrying out our specific duty, we give of ourselves, and this is also the best way to find true communion with our neighbors. We love them and, since they too live for others, they love us in return. Just like in a living body, this reciprocal giving and receiving increases the unity in the splendid mosaic that is the Church.

Such is the nature of the Church, and we need to keep it in mind. Imagine, for example, a mosaic with the image of a young man. Someone might say, "Look at his beautiful and vivid eyes. Are they not the most beautiful part? I want to be the eye!" If others would say the same, imagine what kind of mosaic we would have. It would be disfigured and incomprehensible. So let us remember that we are living tiles of the Church, all linked to one another, and each one participating in the whole. If a particular tile is missing, everyone lacks something, and all suffer the consequences. So we all need to accomplish our task faithfully, which means doing God's will moment by moment.

We must have someone present during each hour as the Most Blessed Sacrament must not be left alone while exposed. If you feel called to spend time with Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament and want to sign up for an hour or as a substitute, please call the office 361-933-1200.
