Meditation of the Day:

How We Are Kept from the Evil One

Dear Mama: Yesterday I saw Papa. We had an excellent parlor visit! He is two inches away from the faith and a mere nothing would send him to the feet of Christ. A little time and the thing will be done. How wonderful are the ways of the Lord! I'm going to write him some more letters to direct his mind to things above, and he will not die without the grace of the Lord. May his example bring light to others and make them reflect a little on the goal of their life....

In yesterday's letter you asked me if I would want to change anything that has happened. No indeed. I have wanted you to understand this: At present, I am living through fragrant hours, certainly the most beautiful of my life; never could I have attained so close a union with God, and without any merit on my part. It is all grace.... Soon I shall be ready to be plucked like a fragile, simple little flower. Be sure that the child Jesus, who loves small flowers, will not fail to come and pick this one to put in his bouquet. For the present, the little flower has still to open, grow, and clothe itself in beautiful hues, so as to delight the heavenly Gardener. I await the divine dew without which I would wither, and by dint of asking for it I shall end by receiving it in abundance....

Christ has said: Father, I do not pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me (Jn 17:9). That means that the world belongs to the devil and is lost. If you seek the world, you are seeking the devil and with him your own loss. If you belong to God, you seek love and the cross of Christ. Jesus will certainly give you his cross, and this will be the plank of your salvation.... There is no salvation outside of Christ crucified. Until tomorrow, dear Mama, I leave you and embrace you a thousand times.

Servant of God Jacques Fesch

Jacques Fesch (+1957) was a murderer who experienced a profound conversion before his execution in a French prison. He wrote these words shortly before he died.

Please remember those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith: †Lillie Dornak, †Richard Pancoast, † Patsy Holland, † Henrietta Vrana

Remember in your prayers those who are sick in our parish: Erwin Dornak, Nina Curran, Raul Perez, Olivia Rosas, Ashley Marie Jimenez, Evelyn Bluntzer, Mike Hellums, Laura Garza, Larry Bryant, Maria Elena Reyna, Carmen Marin, Michael Marin

Please call the Parish Office on the progress of the above to keep our list current.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

The greatest inhumanity that can be ascribed to men is having an opportunity for doing good to others and doing nothing. The serious sin is not always one of commission, but omission.

Sermon in a Sentence A Treasury of Quotations on the Spiritual Life

According to the teaching of Jesus Christ we human beings not only receive and experience God's mercy but we also are commanded to "show mercy" to others: Blest are they who show mercy; mercy shall be theirs.
