“Imitating Our Compassionate Master”

I’ll bet if you were asked at this moment to make up a list of your neighbors’ sins, weaknesses, and faults, without blinking an eyelash you’d have a long list. But if I were to have you tell me something beautiful about your neighbor, even your family, you have to admit that the list of faults come much more quickly. We need to focus on the beautiful qualities that the Father and the Son have planted in [our neighbors’] souls. Compassion heals. Compassion makes things grow. It makes a flower grow out of a garbage heap. It makes things that are desolate bloom.

What are we afraid of? We’re afraid of the demands of compassion. To be compassionate is to forget yourself. To be compassionate is to think more of your neighbor. It is to say to your neighbor, “Look, I know you have weaknesses; I know you have faults...But I, too, am a sinner. I have done other things that nobody has ever seen or knows about.”... Compassion frees you. Compassion transforms you into the image of the Father...How divine it is to forgive. How divine not to judge. How divine to rejoice, like the father at the prodigal son. How divine to say, “Oh, I’m so glad you’re back. I’m so glad you’re repentant.” Look through the eyes of the Father. Look with the heart of Jesus. Look with the power of the Spirit. The Spirit in you can purify you. The Spirit in you can make you love your brother, though you hate his sin. That is compassionate. Lord, make us all compassionate as the Father is compassionate.

Mother Angelica of the Annunciation, P.C.A.

Mother Angelcia († 2016) was a Poor Clare nun and founder of the Eternal Word Television network.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

Unhappy souls almost always blame everyone but themselves for their miseries. Shut up within themselves, they are necessarily shut off from all others except to criticize them. Since the essence of sin is opposition to God’s will, it follows that the sin of one individual is bound to oppose any other individual whose will is in harmony with God’s will. This resulting estrangement from one’s fellow man is intensified when one begins to live solely for this world, then the possessions of the neighbor are regarded as something unjustly taken from oneself. Once the material becomes the goal of life, a society of conflict is born.

Fulton Sheen to be beautified on September 24, 2026 in St. Louis, Missouri.
