“Learning to Love the Father’s Will”

We have many questions in troubled times: “How can I go on?” “How long will this last?” “Why is this happening to me?” “Who’s to blame?” “Is it normal for this to happen?” These questions are fair enough, and sometimes answering them can even help us solve our problems.

But often there are no answers. One can spend a lifetime, for instance, trying to assign responsibility for a situation without succeeding. Instead of being bent on getting answers, one needs the courage to leave certain legitimate questions unanswered-something always painful-and adopt a different perspective: “At the end of the day, what does God want from me in all this?” It is good to remember a fundamental point: it is not knowledge that saves but faith. What saves...is finding the right attitude, the one to which God invites us. Faith lies in welcoming situations with confidence and submitting our conduct to the will of the Holy Spirit...

People in difficult situations who come to terms with their inability to understand everything and begin to ask what God wants of them here and now receive enlightenment little by little. Perhaps an act of confidence is made, or forgiveness is accepted, or there is a renewed effort to pray. Relief and release are the result, and a pathway to the future opens up.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

Conscience, Christ, and the gift of faith makes evil men uneasy in their sin. They feel that if they could drive Christ from the earth, they would be free from “moral inhibitions.” They forget that it is their own nature and conscience which makes them feel that way. Being unable to drive God from the heavens, they would drive his ambassadors from the earth. In a lesser sphere, that is why many men sneer at virtue-because it makes vice uncomfortable.

Blessed Fulton Sheen beautified on September 24, 2026 in St. Louis, Missouri.
