“An Exhortation to Be Wise Tenants”

Brother Francis, your little and looked-down-upon servant in the Lord God, wishes health and peace to all mayors and consuls, magistrates and governors throughout the world and to all others to whom these words may come.

Reflect and see that the day of death is approaching. With all possible respect, therefore, I beg you not to forget the Lord because of this world’s cares and preoccupations and not to turn away from his commandments, for all those who leave him in oblivion and turn away from his commandment are cursed and will be left in oblivion by him (Ez 33:13)

When the day of death does come, everything they think they have shall be taken from them. The wiser and more powerful they may have been in this world, the greater will be the punishment they will endure in hell.

Therefore I strongly advise you...to put aside all care and preoccupation and receive the most holy Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ with fervor in holy remembrance for him. May you foster...honor to the Lord among the people entrusted to you...If you do not do this, know that, on the day of judgment, you must render an account before the Lord your God, Jesus Christ. Let those who keep this writing with them and observe it know that they will be blessed by the Lord God.

St. Francis of Assisi

Saint Francis of Assisi († 1226) Was a deacon, father to the poor, missionary, and religious founder. This is a letter he wrote to “Rulers of the Peoples.”

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

Two principles inspire much of the personal and social dealings of many a citizen in our land: “What can I get out of it?” and “Can I get away with it?” Evil is confused with good, and good is confused with evil. Revolting books against virtue are termed “courageous”; those against morality are advertised as “daring and forward-looking”; and those against God are called “progressive and epoch-making.” It has always been the characteristic of a generation in decay to paint the gates of Hell with the gold of Paradise. In a word, much of the so-called wisdom of our day is made up of that which once nailed our blessed Lord to the Cross.
