MEDITATION OF THE DAY-

Seeing the Face of Christ

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. A great promise... and one to be responded to with our whole desire. This vision is also our assurance, as John the Apostle said: We are now God's children. It does not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. This vision is eternal life, as Truth himself said in the Gospel: This is life eternal, to know you the one true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.

It is a hateful blotch which deprives us of this vision... Just as our bodily sight is blurred by some inner fluid or some outer speck of dust, so spiritual insight is impeded either by the lust of our own flesh or by worldly curiosity and ambition... It sometimes happens that the physical eye seems to remain dim for a little while even after the speck has been taken out or blown away. And it is the same with the inner eye, as the man who walks in the Spirit has often experienced. Even when you have taken out shrapnel, a wound does not immediately begin to heal, but you must then first apply poultices and nurse it...

Washing with water is not sufficient; you must also be purified and refined with fire, so you may say: We have gone through fire and water; and you have brought us forth into a place of refreshment (Ps 66:12). Blessed are the pure in heart, then, for they shall see God. Now we see in a mirror dimly, but in the future we shall see face to face, once our face have been cleansed of all smut and he shall present it to himself resplendent, without spot or wrinkle

Saint Bernard of Clairvaux

Saint Bernard of Clairvaux (+1153), considered the last Church Father, as a monastic reformer and a prolific Cistercian preacher. He is a doctor of the Church.

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

In almost nine cases out of ten, those who have once had Faith now reject it, or claim that it does not make sense, are driven not by reasoning but by the way they are living.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

The Most Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the Adoration Chapel every Sunday from 12:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Please Join Us to Pray the Rosary Every Tuesday in the Chapel @ 5:00 PM. Everyone is welcome!
