

Sermon in a Sentence
A Treasury of Quotations on the Spiritual Life
 One cannot believe in Christ without believing in the Church, the Body of Christ. One cannot believe with the Catholic faith in the Church, without believing in its inalienable magisterium. Fidelity to Christ implies, then, faithfulness to the Church, and faithfulness to the Church brings with it fidelity to the magisterium.

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome

“To dedicate or consecrate” a place to God is a ritual that is found in every religion. To “reserve” a place to God is an act of recognizing His glory and honor.

When the Emperor Constantine granted full liberty to Christians in 313, they did not spare in order to construct places for the Lord – numerous are the churches constructed at that time. Constantine himself also constructed churches, one of which he was a magnificent basilica on the Caelian Hill in Rome, over the ancient Lateran Palace, which Pope Sylvester I dedicated to Christ the Savior (318 or 324). A chapel dedicated to Saint John the Baptist was built inside it which served as the baptistry. This moved Pope Sergius III to dedicate it to Saint John the Baptist as well. Lastly, Pope Lucius II also dedicated it to Saint John the Evangelist in the 12th century. Thus, the name of this Papal Basilica is the Basilica of the Most Holy Savior and of Saints John the Baptist and John the Evangelist in the Lateran. Christians consider the Basilica to be the mother church of all churches in the world.

The church was destroyed several times in the course of the centuries, and always rebuilt. The final reconstruction took place under the pontificate of Benedict XIII. The church was rededicated in 1724. It was at that time that the feast celebrated today was established and extended to the universal Church.

Please remember those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith:

† JoAnn Charba, † Dora Gonzales, † Michael Dawson

Remember in your prayers those who are sick in our parish:

Erwin Dornak, John Lloyd & Evelyn Bluntzer, Lawrence Charba; Mark Heatherton; Angie Rodriguez; Names will be removed after 3-4 weeks unless the office has been notified.

Creating & Maintaining a Safe Environment

All volunteers of the Diocese of Corpus Christi must complete an online application and training and are renewed every 3 years. The program now used is COMPASS. Existing volunteers who are in need of renewal will receive an email automatically from the Diocese with the link for the new program in use. If you are a volunteer and are not sure if you're in need of renewal or a new volunteer, please contact the office @361-933-1200. Thank you.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

The Most Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the Adoration Chapel every Sunday from 12:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

We must have someone present during each hour as the Most Blessed Sacrament must not be left alone while exposed.

If you feel called to spend time with Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament and want to sign up for an hour or as a substitute, please call the office 361-933-1200.

“Every Holy Hour we make so pleases the Heart of Jesus that it will recorded in Heaven and retold for all eternity.” St. Mother Teresa
