The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

A mirror is silent, yet it reflects forests, sunsets, flowers and faces. Great ascetic souls, given to years of meditation, have taken on a radiance and a beauty which are beyond the outlines of faces. They seem to reflect, like the mirror on the outside the Christ they bear within.

Fulton Sheen to be beautified on September 24, 2026 in St. Louis, Missouri.

Consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Today, we consecrate the United States of America to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Parishes and individuals around the country are encouraged to join the U.S. Catholic bishops in this historic occasion, beginning with this Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus written for the consecration.

Consecration of the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus: You know the longings of our hearts and you desire that we enjoy friendship with you. From your pierced side, you have poured out the wellspring of life, for which we thirst. Your heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with you. We celebrate the abundant gifts you have given this nation, founded on the self-evident truths that our Creator has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We make reparation for the offenses against you and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation. May our hearts be united to yours, so that our families and communities enjoy peace and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired, and the wounds of our land be healed. May your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign, pointing all people to your infinite love. O Desire of Nations and Center of History, we ask you to bless these United States of America. Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us! Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

MEDITATION OF THE DAY

One and Three

Look at the sun on high, which appears to be one.
But bend down and look and see its shining- a second.
Test, touch, and examine its heat- a third.
They are like one another, and not alike...
Fire and sun are single natures.
Three things are mingled within them threefold-
Substance, heat, and third, light -
And they dwell in accord with another...
If fire's nature is such a marvel
(It begets, yet suffers no loss; it spreads evenly,
without growing cold;
Though it's heat is distinct, it is not cut off from it...),
(It bears) the mystery of the Spirit – the type of the Holy Spirit...
And though they are so like one another,
(Fire) is still far different, for it cannot depict
The Trinitarian mysteries, which can never be depicted.
And if the investigation of this fire inundates us -
How can it be one? How can it be three?
How can those things that dwell within it be three?
How can its heat be divided and not cut off?-
A nature that we have received lovingly,
In a threefold manner,
Yet have not, along with it, possessed divisive debating,
How much more should we receive simply
These three, with love that does not dispute?"
Their nature does not come after us, to become like us,
For they are like each other in every way,
(While) the natures of creatures are distinct and dissimilar.
How much more distinct than all is the nature above all?
