“Surrendering Our Fears to God”

The great effort of prayer is to return repeatedly to the silent depths of our heart where all acts are purer.... A longing to cast ourselves completely before him and give all to him is what carries us into these depths of silent self-forgetfulness...

But the surrender of our soul only takes on a deeper reality when it enters a garden much like Gethsemane where the night is cold and the winds cast twisting shadows among the gnarled trees. There the soul must expect no rescue but from God himself. The great need in our own Gethsemane is to discover the prayer of Jesus being prayed secretly in our soul: Not my will, but yours, be done. This word of surrender does not come to the help of prayer as though providing an answer to solve a problem. An act of surrender may not remove a tension felt within our soul. Rather, what may happen is that a sense of his strength, of his promise to take care of everything, may pierce a mysterious depth within our soul.

The surrender to God in a brief phrase becomes suddenly, not our prayer alone, but Jesus' words to his Father spoken again from a concealed depth within our soul in that hour. This is the nature of the spiritual fire that must invade our desire for God in prayer. Only when prayer over time carves a fire of deep surrender to God inside the deeper layers of our soul does a passion for God truly inflame our soul.

Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Most Sacred Heart of Jesus: You know the longings of our hearts, and you desire that we enjoy friendship with you. From your pierced side, you have poured out the wellspring of life, for which we thirst. Your heart burns with a love for all people to return to a right relationship with you. We celebrate the abundant gifts you have given this nation, founded on the self-evident truths that our Creator has endowed all people with the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We make reparation for the offenses against you and against human dignity that have taken place in this nation. May our hearts be united to yours, so that our families and communities enjoy peace and happiness; may broken relationships be reconciled, injustices repaired, and the wounds of our land be healed. May your holy Catholic Church serve as a sign, pointing all people to your infinite love. O Desire of Nations and Center of History, we ask you to bless these United States of America.

Who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us!
Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us!

The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen

Here is a psychological suggestion for acquiring peace of soul. Never brag; never talk about yourself; never rush to first seats at table or in a theater; never lord it over others as if you were better than they.

Fulton Sheen to be beautified on September 24, 2026 in St. Louis, Missouri.
